

30 DAYS OF THANKFULNESS for kids

Something you have that other kids don't have (or don't have access to).

A time when you were hurt, scared, or sad, and God helped you.

Something about your parents or guardian.

A book.

Something in nature or the weather.

Something your parents or guardians give you or do for you.

A time when God answered a prayer.

A lesson you've learned.

Something you use every day and usually take for granted.

Something God has done for you.

A public office-holder, military officer, or public service worker.

A family member.

Something good that's happened in the last week.

A toy you love.

Something about God and who He is.

Something about your church.

Something beautiful you saw today.

A place you like to be.

Something about your home, your city, or your state.

A family activity you enjoy, or a trip you've taken.

An act of kindness someone did for you.

A friend.

An animal.

A time when someone forgave you.

A good memory from the last year.

A hobby or interest you enjoy.

Gobble Up Gratitude

If Jesus came to your house for Thanksgiving, what would be on the menu? Write your menu below.
